Councilmen, Bradford House On Ballot

The 12,157 registered Placentia voters will be eligible to go to the polls Tuesday, April 13, to choose three councilmen, a majority of that body, elect a treasurer and decide the fate of the Bradford House.

Only one incumbent, Michael Callahan, Mayor Pro Tem of the city, is seeking reelection.

Some of the 10 candidates for the three council seats appeared to be conducting big-effort drives in the last days of the campaign, with others depending more on literature, mailings and advertisements than on personal appearances.

Political signs are scarce so far this year, possibly because of the tighter enforcement of sign restrictions by City Hall.

The ten candidates, offering the voters a variety of backgrounds and skills have made two appearances at candidates nights, presenting a number of individual stands. With no major issues apparent in the campaign, the electioneering has fallen to basics such as finances, density of population, services and the Chino Hills airport.

Many of the fighting issues involve decisions already made, such as the Chapman Avenue widening, purchase of five acres of property adjacent to the Civic Center and the fire service transfer, which will become an issue again at the end of the county contract.

Also in the offering of the current year will be employee salary negotiations for a variety of organized public employee groups, ranging from general classifications to police and mid-management.

At stake is the fate of the Bradford House, on which voters are being asked to make a decision as to its future. Tours of the stately home are well attended, affording more and more voters a look inside.

Groups, supporting the retention of the home, are urging voters to respond, but some apathy appears to exist especially over the ambiguity as to the amount of money the home would require and its exact use.

The question on the ballot outlines that the house will be saved as an historical monument, probably making it eligible for county, state and federal grants.

Proponents are urging that the house be spared for a minimum use, with its exact function to be outlined at a later date.

Present Mayor Robert Lyons is the only candidate for city treasurer, a post he claimed at the candidate's night held April 1 on the strength that a voter known to him has cast an absentee ballot in his favor, giving him the legal vote he needs.

Although there had been some talk earlier in the campaign of a write-in candidate, none appears to have materialized.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Voters also for the first time, received their ballots printed in two languages, with the Spanish version apparently aimed at the 2.4 per cent of monolingual heads of household, speaking Spanish only and other members of homes, revealed in the recent mid-decade census conducted in the city.

There was some complaint concerning the added cost of the bilingual requirements.

Two other issues on the ballot are an attempt to bring city candidate residence requirements in line with state law. Placentia has had extensive residence stipulations which are in excess of the 30 days required by the state. A yes vote will bring the two into harmony.

Candidates as they appear on the ballot with their occupations, include: Donald N. Stephenson, businessman; Ed Jones, Placentia businessman; Virginia C. Farmer, urban planner; Michael J. Callahan, Placentia city councilman; Robert N. Whitmore, attorney/businessman William E. Rashford, engineering supervisor; Wayne G. Bolger, telephone company employee; Robert Bircher, manufacturing manager; Robert E. Davis, businessman and Donald A. Holt, area sales manager.

Statements from each of the candidates appear on Page 2 of this issue of The Placentia Courier.

A Closer Look

Placentians again will have the rare privilege of selecting their own leaders. An act not necessarily common around the world. Free elections are the essential ingredient for a democracy that works. And the more of us who contribute and participate, the stronger the system becomes.

With no big issues separating the voters April 13, selection of three people to sit on our top governing body, will most likely be based on friendships, acquaintances, qualifications and drive.

The ten candidates who have presented themselves are both impressive and industrious and the voters may make their decisions on the basis of individual stands on a number of sectional items.

The two candidates nights held this year have been interesting and especially well conducted. One of the most frequently asked questions at the second event held at the Backs Building, we were told, was why the smoking ban was relaxed for the evening. About 12 people asked.

The candidate residency requirement measure on the ballot is almost routine as a "yes" vote is essential to keep us within state law.

Certainly of more general interest is the decision by voters on the fate of the Bradford House, built in 1904 by the founder of the city, Albert Bradford.

Proponents of saving the home have been pleasantly surprised by the turnout of citizens to tour the inside of the home. The first Sunday tour produced nearly 400 interested visitors and last Sunday over 500 people stood in the rain for the privilege of viewing the heritage structure.

There will be one more series of tours this Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m. No one will be turned away and everyone is invited. There also will be entertainment.

One thing about the Bradford House and other vintage structures. Their value does not depreciate but grows greater every year. Like interest on money.

What all of us are reminding ourselves to do now is to go to the polls and vote Tuesday. We are the only ones who can cast that particular ballot and every single one of them counts equally.

—Betty Mead

THE BRADFORD HOUSE, built in 1904, stands amid the splendor of its trees and gardens. Voters will assess its future by ballot on April 13. Tours through the house will be conducted Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m., the last opportunity before the election.

Opinion

In visiting with our friends and neighbors as well as in doing our journalistic duties, we meet many people who are deeply concerned about the Bradford House. These people take pleasure in contact with the structure. It represents roots, contact with a previous era, a refreshing change from today's plastic environment.

The house has a charm--plantings blending urban ornament and rural function, a coal burning fireplace with unique tile, extensive use of wood of a quality not found in today's market, a stairway picture-perfect for the descent of excited youngsters on special days and blushing brides on that special day, and perhaps most important, a view of lovely greenery from its windows when we're all so accustomed to block walls and three year old saplings. On a recent tour a college student commented on "a real house in this sea of ticky-tacky."

Most supporters of the house don't see the need to spend huge sums of money on it--they'd be happy with merely replacing the few broken windows and protecting them with screening heavy enough to ward off vandals' rocks. The roof does need repair. Many would like to see it furnished and open, but they'd settle for minimum. A few paths and benches would make the grounds fully habitable and will undoubtedly be added whether or not the house is allowed to stand.

Support for the house comes from all age groups but is particularly strong among the youth. A number of this city's high school students, recently turned 18, are registering to vote and they list preservation of the house as the principal reason.

Opposition to the house is based on one factor--money. The homeowner who feels the pinch of the economy and the steady rise of taxes is, in many cases, moved by his wallet pinch more than his emotions toward or against the house. Most people who will vote "no" on the house, would have voted "no" on the street plantings, five acres, and city employee salary raises had they had the chance and in many instances "no" on the Civic Center and other parks as well.

In comparison to other parks this one would be a bargain even if the full restoration and furnishing line were taken, since the cost of land acquisition alone usually exceeds the $100,000 figure. That doesn't comfort the pressured taxpayer who would like to dispose of some of the city's assets in turn for lower taxes.

In truth, the taxpayer will pay either way on the property. To tear down the house costs some money, to develop the park grounds will take some money, to repair vandalism will take some money. Compared to the city's budget, this money is minimal--but it's still money. The city accepted responsibility for this money in accepting the property.

It is ironic that at a time when several Orange County cities are raising funds to purchase such historical houses, Placentia is voting on whether to tear its house down. We'd like to save the house as an integral part of Placentia, but if that isn't to be, we'd like to see the city exercise its one option for disposing of the property and assign the house to some organization that could use it under the terms of the original contract. Cal State University Fullerton wanted the property at the time Placentia acquired it--might they still? Their proposal saw it as office and classroom space for select programs for adults wishing to further their education, cultural programs and as an extension of the arboretum with its lovely collection of specimen plants. If the city doesn't see fit to utilize the grounds as it was originally conceived, we'd like to see other organizations given the opportunity to do so. To tear down so much of our heritage would break many hearts and leave a big void in our too plastic environment.

"Let My People Go" —Yorba Linda Asks

The Yorba Linda School District, which ordered its first study in the early 1960's on the possibility of merging with Placentia Unified School District, did not seem to be much further along after their most recent meeting last week.

The main impediment to the annexation appeared to be money.

Meeting with Yorba Linda and PUSD were members of the Fullerton Union High School District Board which takes Yorba Linda youngsters after the eighth grade and educates them at Troy High School.

What the Yorba Linda district is seeking is a merger of its five square miles into the 34 square mile PUSD. Since Placentia is a unified district, one board of trustees serves all grade levels in this district.

In Yorba Linda, students are bused across Placentia and Brea to reach their high school destination. All PUSD high schools are closer and one, Esperanza, serves the portion of Yorba Linda that is a part of PUSD.

Also involved in the school district triangle is a 40-acre high school site on the northwest boundary of Yorba Linda, which is owned by the Fullerton district. It has been assumed by Yorba Lindans that a high school is forthcoming on this land.

Erv Triplett, president of the Fullerton high school board, said that the trustees have made no decision as to when they will build in Yorba Linda..."if we ever do. We don't know when we will or if we will," he explained.

Triplett said that he did no envision any problems however, from the Fullerton district operating a high school with other cities in between. FUHSD now operates facilities in La Habra, Buena Park, Fullerton and the Lowell District.

Dr. Sterling Fox, superintendent of the Yorba Linda district, said that he does not believe there is anything further his board can do at this time to accomplish the merger. "It's really up to the other two districts," he explained.

Impediments to the annexation are the fact that the Fullerton district is already suffering declining enrollments. Taking away Yorba Linda's 1,246 Troy High School students would leave that facility with a low population. It also would place the burden on Placentia of finding space for them. However, Placentia plans on building another high school in the general Yorba Linda area.

The transfer would also mean a loss in revenue to Fullerton, where the amount of money spent for the education of high school students is higher than in the Placentia district.

Other considerations concern a number of teachers who would no longer be required by Fullerton and who would probably seek consideration in case of a merger.

The presentation to members of the three boards was made by Dewey Hillman, Assistant Superintendent, Business of the Orange County Department of Education. Last week's meeting was held in the Valencia High School Library.

One possibility Hillman discussed was that the high school students might be phased out a year at a time, allowing those who had started, to complete their schooling at Troy.

Hillman also pointed out that Fullerton owns the Yorba Linda high school site outright. "Fullerton can sell it now for more than they paid for it. If they want to sell the site, because it's not ideal anyway, they could make some money on it. They are going to be hard pressed for money," Hillman explained.

If the annexation were to be considered, Hillman continued, all three boards would have to agree on it. A public vote would also be required in the Yorba Linda district.

Hillman added: "I think what we're really here for tonight is for the three districts to make a decision as to whether you can get together on the financial situation or not. If you can't, it's a shame to leave something like this up in the air for two or three years. I really think Yorba Linda is asking for a 'yes' or a 'no'."

Triplett replied that "there are many other factors that ought to be taken into consideration. There is entirely too much additional that we have to look into."

No announcement was made as to when anyone would again consider the proposition.

Sunrise Services Start At 6 a.m.

Placentia's annual Easter Sunrise Service will begin this year at 6 a.m., the sponsoring Placentia Clergy Association stated this week.

The event is held in Kraemer Park.

Addressing the service will be Rev. Robert Prentice, pastor of the Placentia Presbyterian Church.

New additions this year will be the inclusion of bilingual portions in the program and as a social extension, coffee will be served to all those attending.

Assembly Oks "Call Home"

A 'call home program' bill, introduced by Assemblyman Bruce Nestande (R-Orange), passed the State Assembly 72-0 Monday.

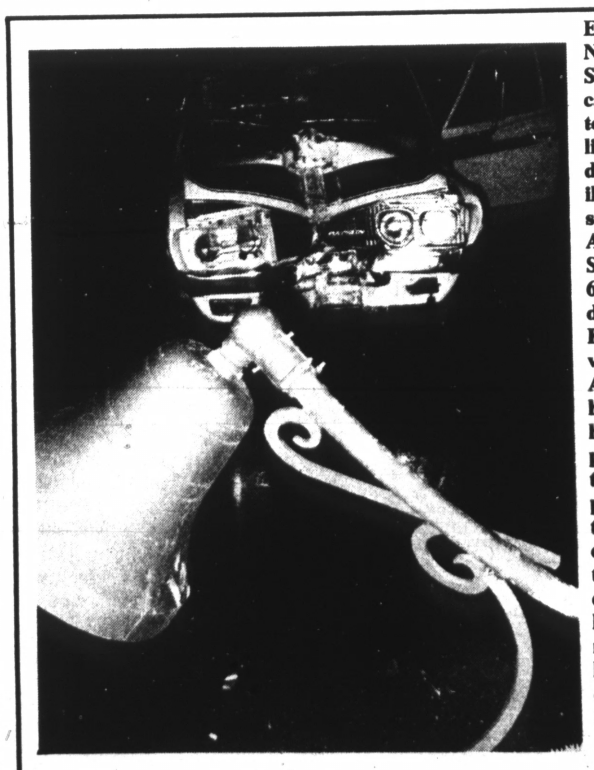
Assemblyman Nestande introduced the bill "when it came to my attention that an 8 year old Placentia boy was fatally crushed while playing on an oil well pump, on his way to school."

Assemblyman Nestande and others felt that "some day a youngster's life could be saved if parents are made aware of the fact that their child left home, but didn't get to school."

Nestande pointed out that this bill (AB 2667), would "require all school district governing boards to either, (1) adopt a pupil attendance monitoring program or, (2) determine by resolution, that no attendance monitoring program is necessary. If the board adopts a monitoring program, the bill permits the board to utilize the monitoring system specified in the bill, or to adopt by resolution, an alternate monitoring program."

Assemblyman Nestande indicated that the bill has broad support, and that many schools in the local area have implemented some type of 'call home program.'

A call home program, in which parents of elementary school children are contacted if an excused absence has not been phoned in, was put into effect last year in schools of the Placentia Unified School District.



EARLY MORNING CRASH Sunday left a caved in truck, a toppled street light and a dazed driver, who luckily escaped serious injury. Andrew Alex Sarallanez, 19, 635 Kansas, was driving south on Kraemer Boulevard near Morse Avenue, when he lost control of his 1975 Datsun pickup truck on the rain slick pavements. The truck knocked down a five foot tree and the double light lamp pole in the median. Sarellanez suffered cuts and bruises but was not seriously injured.

Council Candidates Issue Their Statements

Donald Stephenson States Complaints

The present body of city councilmen have shown a flagrant disregard for our rights.

We had no vote on the controversial five acres. We had no vote on the utility tax.

Chapman Avenue Master Plan for 1961 was to take 40 feet from the monumental center line. Why change? What happened to this appraisal plan? If the 1961 plans can be changed, why can't this one?

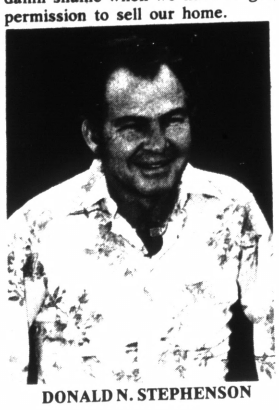
"Handbook for new councilmen" and I, Don Stephenson quote from the book:

"As a city councilman, you share with other members of your city council power over the lives and over property of your municipal stockholders to:

1. Declare their conduct criminal.
2. Tax them.
3. Condemn their property for public use.
4. Regulate their business.
5. Tell them how and for what purposes they may use their property."

I find this hard to believe. I feel that zoning, building and variance permits should not require a fee until they have been approved.

We have a new ordinance which levies a $15 fee for inspection before you can sell your house. I think it is a damn shame when we have to get permission to sell our home.



DONALD N. STEPHENSON

Councilman Callahan Lists Achievements

I believe much has been achieved during the four years I have served as your City Councilman and Mayor Pro-Tem, but there is still much work to do for Placentia.

I promised Placentians that the business of the city would be done in public and I have certainly kept that promise. It has not been a popular position but I refused to do what was popular rather than what was needed for Placentia.

Our park program is well along the way; two community buildings are open; our new civic center is a point of pride for Placentians, and we have had tremendous increases in our commercial area of the city.

We are now protected by paramedics and our fire contract assures the citizens of Placentia more than twice the fire protection at a much lower cost, which will be reflected in the fire insurance rates on your home. All of this, and more, was accomplished while lowering the city tax rate by a startling 16 cents.

I have managed to end the utility tax on water and I promise I will not stop this fight until all the utility tax is ended. I can prove that it will no longer be needed after next year.

Further development of commercial and industrial property in the city is vital to maintain our balance and a solid tax base -- to keep that tax rate down, I am willing to keep up the good fight for Placentia.

Wayne Bolger Faces Key Issues

We, the citizens of Placentia, must now look to the future with concern. Some of the philosophies of the city that have changed during the past few years, will greatly affect our lives and living environment in the future. Some of the key issues are:

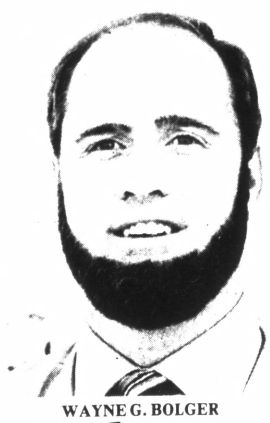
The projected budget shows that the general fund reserves will be exhausted by 1983. The philosophy of deficit spending must be changed. We the taxpayers must be accounted to.

The philosophy of increasing high density apartments by almost 300 per cent and condominiums by over 200 per cent must not be allowed to happen. The increase in crime, traffic and school related problems will place an undue burden on the community.

The people of Placentia deserve the best fire protection for each dollar spent. If this means returning to our own department then so be it.

The bike trail program (on the books for three years) should be implemented as soon as possible. The safety of our children should be of paramount importance.

We must bring back the philosophy that the city is in existence to serve all its citizens. The city council must listen to the people and find out what their needs and desires are.



WAYNE G. BOLGER

Ed Jones Would Seek Industry

I would like to be a City Councilman for the City of Placentia because: is not an easy statement to complete.

In my opinion, there are at the present time, many issues I could discuss in lengthy detail, taking up quite a bit of time, however, I will try to summarize my feelings by saying, I would feel it a great honor and have an equally great sense of responsibility to the people of Placentia, to serve as a Placentia Councilman.

If elected, one particular point I would like to see be taken care of is the area of old downtown Placentia. I feel it is a very dangerous hazard and see no reason why the City Of Placentia would not be able to instigate reconstruction of the area. I feel this is why the public elects City Council representatives, to see that in addition to the current development whether industrial or private, are maintained.

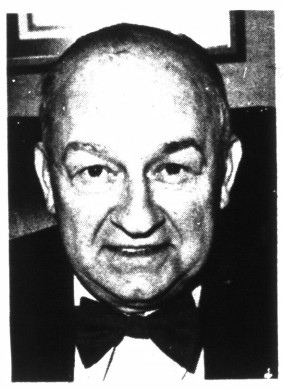
I would also strive to help Placentia maintain a low density populated area, as well as try to continue the lowest possible tax rates and help promote and develop all industrial areas as planned.

In closing, I feel my past experience has provided me with the ability to efficiently manage city policies and see to it that your desires become a reality for the City Of Placentia.

ED V. JONES

Robert Whitmore Addresses Problems

Our campaign began with a survey in the community to determine the issues concerning you. We were convinced those issues most important to Placentians were being ignored.



ROBERT N. WHITMORE

It's not surprising that once we uncovered the issues of drugs, lack of practice ballfields, taxes, inadequate employment opportunities and the Chino Hills airport the other candidates have followed our lead in addressing themselves to these same issues.

Drug traffic and its associated crimes of theft and burglary need more attention at City Hall.

We need more practice ball fields for our youth in Placentia.

Our run-away budget if allowed to increase at the same rate of the last two years will exceed 41 million dollars ($41,000,000.00) in 1983-1984.

We need more business in Placentia to provide jobs for Placentians.

I will oppose a Chino Hills airport.

I am appalled that a staff employee who admittedly attempted to peddle his influence in our election has been dealt with so mildly. Such activity by a city employee calls for outright dismissal, not a slap on the wrist and two days suspension.

As Councilman I will be committed to finding solutions to these issues, always mindful that the power to tax is the power to destroy.

Robert Bircher Emphasizes Goals

Name: Robert Bircher, Residence: 349 Sunrise, Placentia, Age: 39, Marital Status: Married, two daughters ages 18 and 13, Occupation: Manufacturing Manager, Education: Industrial Arts Education Major Long Beach State College.

ROBERT BIRCHER

Qualifications: 5 year member Placentia Planning Commission. Reviewed and updated Placentia's General Plan to insure proper growth and development as a well balanced community. Wrote and revised Zoning Ordinances. Conducted Public hearings on Use Permits, Site Development Approvals, Zone Changes and all elements of the Placentia General Plan. Took an active part in support of the passage of Park Bond issue to develop all of Placentia's Parks. Past member and secretary of Placentia Jaycees. Past member Board of Directors-Placentia Boys Club.

Goals: Keep our taxes at the lowest possible level by critical revue of all city budget items.

Restore confidence in the city council by communicating with the people of the city and fulfilling their desires in the best interest of the entire community.

Responsibly utilize our taxes by using our tax revenues for the "Gotta Haves" and not the "Nice to Haves".

Attract desirable Commerce and Industry to relieve the homeowners of burdensome levies and provide employment for the people of Placentia.

Continually update our General Plan to insure proper growth and development through a well planned, balanced community which will provide Business and commerce, Industry, Housing and Recreational Facilities in proper proportions.

Search for new and improved methods for delivering high level municipal services at lower costs.

Continue to represent the entire community.

I believe my experience in city government combined with my business background has given me excellent preparation for a seat on the Placentia City Council.

Virginia Farmer Would Improve City

As a council person, I will promote a congenial atmosphere on the council so that Placentia's image of a "do-nothing council" will be improved in order to attract successful commercial and industrial enterprises to locate in the city.

I wish to encourage business enterprises which will be popular with the public and attract clientele not only from this city but the surrounding areas. We have no bowling alley and I feel one would be an important addition to the city. Soon there will be no theatre close to Placentia and I believe we can attract a theatre which will show first run popular movies and that the city and surrounding communities will support this sort of enterprise. Another business the city needs is a dinner house. We have many places in which to eat but no place to dine. A well-known restaurant with an established reputation or a well-financed specialty restaurant will prove popular since there are none in this immediate area.

I will support measures which will reduce the tax rate without eroding the services which citizens need and want. I do not unequivocally support contracting with other cities, government entities or private enterprises for services, as then the local government may lose control of its ability to regulate and to respond to citizens' complaints and needs and to keep a firm grip on cost control.

If it is found, however, that local control will not be lost and that the city would benefit by contracting some services with other governmental bodies and private enterprise, as it now does with solid waste disposal, then I feel the council should explore the situation.

I feel the most important issue facing the council is fiscal responsibility. A strong council with experienced people in government and economics must take the responsibility for fiscal control. I have experience and education in government and economics. I have a proven record of fiscal responsibility. My past experience on the library district board proves I can serve as an independent, objective, public official who will be responsive to the community and to issues.

SCHOOL BOARD

The next regular board meeting of the Placentia Unified School District will be held at 7:45 p.m. Monday, April 12, in the board room. It will be the annual organization meeting.

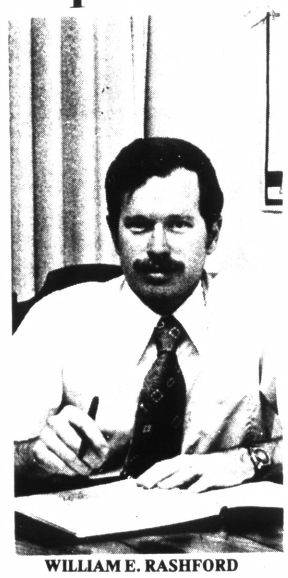
Bill Rashford Weighs Viewpoints

I am running for City Council because I like living here in Placentia and I want to do my part to ensure that we have an honest, open city government that is sensitive to the needs of the people. I want to do my part to help the city maximize the services available for the existing tax dollar. I believe that future development must be orderly and in accordance with the City's General Plan. I want to see close cooperation with the Placentia Unified School District and an assurance that the recreational needs of our citizens are being met. I want to ensure that our police service is effective at combatting crime and is also courteous and respectful.

I believe that my education and background provide me with the necessary tools to handle a City Council position. My Planning Commission record during the last four years indicates an ability to effectively deal with City business and to deal with people of many viewpoints in an equitable manner.



WILLIAM E. RASHFORD

Robert Davis Wants Supportive City

Somewhere on the ballot I'm identified as Robert Davis.

I am an 11-year resident of Placentia, and, at 51, I'm the oldest candidate in this election.

I have devoted more years to political activities and service than any other candidate - except one.

I have been involved in more community service to Placentia than any other candidate through my work with the Boys' Club, Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis Club, Elks Lodge, Heritage Festival, Bicentennial Committee and United Way of Orange County.

I was nominated for Placentia's 1974 Citizen of the Year award. And, I am the one who gave Placentia the 1976 business telephone directory - something the city never had before.

I am a local businessman who is fed up with more and more government. I am fed up with more and more taxes. I am a local businessman who is fed up because the city rarely buys services or products from Placentia merchants.

ROBERT E. DAVIS

I am fed up with the way government regulates our business to the point where it is difficult to operate. And I believe it is time the more than 400 small businesses in Placentia did something - together - to help get government off our back.

It is also time the more than 30,000 residents of Placentia did something - together - to guarantee good government locally.

I believe government should serve the people - not oppose them.

I want to be your city councilman because I am qualified. I want to help make Placentia more like the town we would all like it to be.

But I can't do anything unless you elect me. So I need your support. Together, we can do anything. Please vote April 13.

Don Holt—It's The Bottom Line That Counts

DONALD A. HOLT

Donald A. Holt, Jr., the last name on the ballot, stresses "It's the bottom line that counts." He points out: "The time has come for the Placentia voters to decide how our city will be run in the forthcoming years. Fancy words do not get votes, the voters vote on the individual's character, his position on issues and his performance record."

Holt states he played an instrumental part in helping to bring in paramedics and continues to support the program. Holt, Business Manager and Board member of the Placentia Founder's Society, has worked long and hard to preserve the Bradford Heritage House and continues to support that endeavor.

Unalterably opposed to the Chino Hills Airport, Holt feels we need to "encourage commercial-industrial growth to offset our property taxes and create jobs for Placentians."

Holt, having two sons, both actively involved in soccer, track and Little League, feels the very definite needs for expanded recreational and athletic facilities. Holt stands firmly on the statement "We must hold to the Council expense account guidelines and we must set peremptory management guidelines for our staff and make them accountable and responsive to them."

Holt concludes: "Citizens Interaction must be expanded between councilmen and citizens stating, "my home phone is 528-0530" and asking the voters to remember "it's the bottom line that counts."

Guidance Center Opens

The North Orange County Child Guidance Center is in the process of establishing a satellite clinic in Placentia. The Placentia Junior Round Table is sponsoring an open house for all residents on Wednesday, April 7 at 7:30 at the clinic location on the Tuffree Junior High School campus.

The purpose of the open house is to acquaint the community with the Center's many available services the residents would like to see offered. On hand to answer questions will be Sandy Beckman, president of the Board of Directors of the Child Guidance Center, Howard Wood, incoming president, Hank Paris, Deputy Program Director and Dr. Ronald Jue, Project Co-ordinator.

The following Juniors will be hostesses for the evening: Fran Mueller, Susan Weber, Linda Dawson, Marguerite Smith, Cecilia Brown, Cyndy Landwehr, Marty Rogers and Tryna Morton.

LV Hosts Book Fair

Linda Vista School has planned a "Book Fair". This, a ways and means project, directed by Chairman Diane Hutchison, will run from April 5 to 9.

"Books will be on display each day during the sale week, in the multi-purpose room of the school, from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., giving each student an opportunity to purchase books at his leisure," stated Mrs. Hutchison. "In addition, the Book Fair will be open for sales during the evening of April 8th during the schools' Open House."

All of the books to be sold are new books. The selection of subject and title are too numerous to mention. Prices will range from 39 cents to $3.99.

Friends, students, parents, anyone interested in reading good books is invited to participate in making this, our first Book Fair, a great success.

Pack 706 Eggs

Cub Scout Pack 706 is still selling Helen Grace Easter eggs in order to raise funds for family pack activities.

The eggs will be delivered to the buyer's home by calling 528-5059 or 529-9763. The boys are selling either chocolate or chocolate walnut eggs for $1.50, the same price as they can be purchased at stores.

Honor List

Becky Morrow was on the President's Honor list at Cypress College this fall. She is in the Stewardess Hostess Program there studying to be an airline reservationist.

Democrat Caucuses

Democratic Party Presidential delegate recommendation caucuses will be held throughout the state on Sunday, April 11. All of them will begin at 1 p.m.

Each candidate must hold 43 congressional district caucuses in order to be eligible to receive delegates based upon the June 8 primary results in each congressional district.

Registered Democrats wanting to be delegates to the National Convention for their candidate must file an "Intention to Run for Delegate" stating the candidate they support with the county clerk or registrar by the end of the day, April 8; attend and run in their candidate's congressional district caucus on April 11 and work actively for the election of their candidate on June 8.

The April 11 caucuses in the 39th District by candidate and location:

BROWN- Cal State Fullerton Humanities Building, Room 4123.

CARTER- Fullerton College Campus Theater, 321 E. Chapman.

CHURCH - Republic Federal Savings & Loan, 500 N. Euclid, Room 22, Anaheim.

HARRIS - Apartment Recreation Room, 2970 E. Ruby Drive, Fullerton.

JACKSON - Carpenter's Local #2361 Main Hall, 1916 W. Chapman, Orange.

McCORMACK-Call McCormack Headquarters, 547-5611.

UDALL - Orange High School, 525 N. Shaffer, Orange.

WALLACE- John Marshal Elementary School Resource Room, 2066 W. Falmouth Ave., Anaheim.

Off To The World Hairstyling Championships 1976

Mr. Ricardo is off again to New York City for the World Hairstyling Championships being held for the first time here in the United States. Also going from the staff of Ricardo's Hair Design in Anaheim Hills is Nellie Crisante and Ursula Krumnow which should prove to be an enlightening experience in that professional techniques of cosmetologists from countries throughout the world are to be presented - 28 nations in all are to be represented. This symposium is to consist of the latest in fashions in men and women's haircuts and hairstylings of the international as well as domestic creations.

When that's all over Ricardo gets back to work before leaving New York City since he is scheduled to give demonstrations for his colleagues there as he has in the past, then back to Orange County, his staff and patrons in Anaheim Hills where he'll share new found techniques and creations. In the meantime Nellie and Ursula will be off to "Jolly Old England" for more exposure to the latest in hair fashions which influence the trends of our styles and of course for some rest and relaxation.

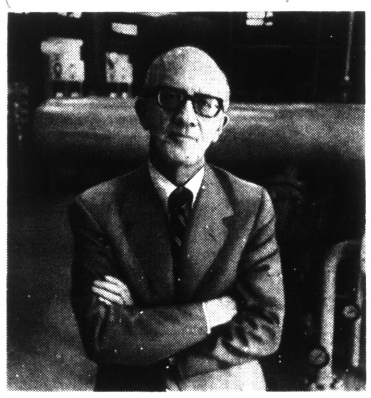
If natural gas is in such short supply, why don't we use solar energy?

One of a series of reports by Harvey A. Proctor, Chairman, Southern California Gas Company.



Why not tap the abundant energy of the sun? That's a question the Gas Company hears frequently.

In fact, the Gas Company is working hard to use energy from the sun to help solve the natural gas shortage. You may have heard of our SAGE project. It's one of the largest residential solar research projects in the nation. SAGE is short for Solar Assisted Gas Energy. SAGE has been going since 1973 with the Jet Propulsion Laboratory of the California Institute of Technology. With the help of funding from the National Science Foundation, we're collecting energy from the sun and heating water in apartments.

Where SAGE started, where SAGE is now.

In its first phase in 1973, SAGE studies showed that using the sun to heat water was worth trying.

Then an actual water heating system using the sun's energy was built and tested.

After that, SAGE went into the field. A SAGE system was put into a large apartment building in El Toro. There it is heating water for 32 apartments right now.

This year another SAGE system will be installed in a large, new Upland apartment building as it is constructed.

So SAGE has moved from studies and lab work to a real system heating water for a number of families.

The promise of SAGE.

Sometime in the 1980s the sun can be a real help in solving the energy shortage. Although solar energy won't replace gas as a main source of energy, it can help natural gas heat water in new dwelling units. But, materials and systems to catch and hold the sun's energy cost too much at this time.

Only a few people can afford these systems right now because they are costly. However, we at the Gas Company have to think about all of the 12,000,000 people we supply. The cost of solar energy today is considerably higher than the cost of natural gas. That cost must be brought down before this country can make much use of solar energy.

As we and others gain more experience with solar energy and as costs of other energy forms increase, the use of solar energy will become more practical. But this effort will take time, and today's energy problems need to be solved with today's energy sources and technologies.

The greater promise of Indonesia, Alaska and New Mexico.

There's only one way to solve the natural gas shortage, which is here now and getting worse, and threatens to be desperate by 1979 or 1980: find and get new gas supplies.

We've been working on four major new supply projects. Indonesia is one. It could provide southern California with large new supplies. The Cook Inlet in south Alaska is another. Natural gas from Atlantic Richfield Company in northern Alaska looked as if it would fill a lot of southern California's needs, but we were forced to cancel that contract. We still hope to get gas from northern Alaska. The fourth project is in New Mexico and could fill 10% of current needs. There we would make gas from coal.

Those projects would go far in solving the gas shortage. But three have been delayed seriously. And the ARCO gas has been lost, at least for the time being.

What is holding up those new supplies?

Approvals. Every project has to be approved by many local, state and national authorities. As many as 100 approvals have been needed for one project that's still not approved. Some projects are approved and then restudied time after time. This costs time, and that adds to the cost of the project. As time passes, the price of everything—pipelines, materials, labor, ships—just keeps going up and up because of inflation.

To get you more gas at the lowest price, we need faster action by government agencies. Our studies, based on government reports, show that 700,000 jobs in this area are at stake.

How can you help?

Keep yourself fully informed about the natural gas shortage and our efforts to bring you new supplies. We have a small brochure that can give you more information. Write for the Gas Company brochure on supply. Southern California Gas Company, P.O. Box 54093, Los Angeles, CA 90054.

Pack 742 Dinner

Cub Scout Pack 742 held their annual Blue and Gold dinner at Glenknoll School late in February. Cubmaster Jerry Brower welcomed the scouts and their parents. Rev. Meyer of Messiah Lutheran Church gave the invocation. Guests were treated to a potluck dinner furnished by members of the Pack.

Guest speaker for the evening was Jerry Northwood. Awards were presented with a special one going to Leslie Kasper, retiring Den Mother.

Webelos colors were presented to Tom Kasper, Matt Merkle and Roger Linder. Other awards were: Matt Merkle, Bear Badge; Shayne Halverson, Bear, one gold, three silver arrows; Ray Wolfe, Bear, one gold, three silver arrows; Richard Wolfe, Bear, one gold, three silver arrows; Denty Lomenzo, Bear, one gold, one silver arrow; Andrew Gude, one year pin; Tom Kasper, Bear and gold arrow; Tom Johnson, Bear and gold arrow.

Also: Roy Richey, Wolf; Fred Hamilton, gold arrow; Paul Shandrew, Wolf and gold arrow; Steve Shaffer, outdoorsman; Randy Lewis, craftsman; Greg Gude, craftsman; Jeff Templeton, craftsman, forester, engineer; Bob Templeton, Den Chief.

A special event was the Arrow of Light ceremony with Kenny Dietz, Randy Lewis and Ricky Rodriquez crossing over into boy scouting.

The boys are now selling chocolate Easter eggs to finance a train trip to San Clemente on May 23. On March 19 an after school treat was a bowling outing to Carter Lanes in Fullerton.

The pack held a Pinewood Derby on March 30 and a father-son cake decorating contest is scheduled for April 29.

THESPIANS--El Dorado High School drama winners include Mike Halverson, Margie Oldendorf and Deanna Musgrove, who received superior acting medals from California State University at Long Beach's 20th annual festival. Margie also received a trophy for Best Actress in the festival in her role as Belva Summers in "The Lottery".

Students Place At Top

Student actors from El Dorado High School in Placentia performed their way to top honors at the 20th annual High School Theater Festival hosted by California State University, Long Beach.

The 38 students who performed "The Lottery" earned the highest rating given at the festival, a superior for group achievement, according to Gai Jones, drama teacher. In addition, Mike Halverson, Deanna Musgrove and Margie Oldendorf were given superior ratings for individual performances.

Miss Oldendorf won the top honor of the festival by being named "best actress."

Mother-Daughter Banquet Set

A Mother-Daughter Banquet will be held by members of the Placentia Presbyterian Church at 6:30 p.m., May 5 in the Fellowship Hall.

Entertainment, "Polka Dots, Puppets and Posies" will be provided by The Cameos with songs, skits and puppets.

Tickets for adults will be $2.50 and for children $1.50, age 12 and under. Ticket sales begin on April 11.

Committee members include Kay Haskell, Diane Milton, Agnes Moffet, Bobi Toman, Shirley Savoska, Lavina Smith, Shirley Hunt, Barbara Hemmerling, Mary Lewis, Helen Wheeler, Beverly Davisson, Linda Kish, Clarabel Scott and Dagmar Davis.

Emblem Institution

Placentia-Yorba Linda Emblem Club #498, wishes to extend an invitation to all Emblem Clubs, relatives and friends of the members of Chapter #498, to their Institution on Sunday, April 11.

The Institution will begin at 3 p.m. at the Orange Emblem club, Elks Lodge, 211 East Chapman Avenue, Orange.

Membership is open to all wives, mothers, sisters, daughters or step daughters over the age of 18 of a member in good standing of the Elks.

The club's charter will remain open until July 4, 1976.

Presiding over the ceremonies will be Past Supreme President, Clara Miller, Burbank and Nadine Burns, Past President, San Fernando. Installation of Charter Officers will take place during the Institution.

For further information write to P.O. Box 1124, Placentia, 92670

LINDA VISTA PHARMACY
Back in the 16th century, the Chinese pharmacopoeia...the official listing of medical substances...contained about 1900 items that could be combined into millions of different "Compounds". China's new political regime promotes the study and use of modern Western medicine but also sanctions the old time remedies, most of which are still widely used today.
Chinese doctors may treat their patients with modern antibiotics combined with lotus seeds, snake gall, tiger bones or other esoteric things in which the patient has great confidence. Many older Chinese are convinced that Western medicine makes them weak.
The best of Western medicines are on hand in our Pharmacy, awaiting your doctor's prescription. LINDA VISTA PHARMACY honors the major credit cards.

Briggs Again Seeks Judge

Assemblyman John V. Briggs (R-Fullerton) is going to give Governor Brown an opportunity to reconsider his veto of Briggs' AB 2459 which would have added one more judge to the North Orange County Municipal Court by re-introducing the measure.

Briggs said, "The rules state a member may not author a bill during a session that would have substantially the same effect as a bill he had previously introduced. However, under Joint Rule 54(a), this restriction does not apply when a previously introduced bill has been vetoed by the Governor."

Briggs continued, "I believe the Governor might have received some 'bum' advice from one of the Governor's staff persons in regards to vetoing this badly-needed judge in my district; therefore, I am re-introducing the bill in order to enable the Governor to personally review the need for the bill, as is his style and custom.

"The Governor's official written reasoning for vetoing the bill stated the local taxpayers couldn't afford it. Facts bear out that the Court shows a profit of $100,000 plus each month, and every month filings are up; the backlog has increased and the one more judge would have more than paid for himself with increased fees and penalties.

"The bill was originally requested by the Board of Supervisors because of the vast growth in the Area."

Shot Clinic Planned

On the third Thursday of every month, the Orange County Health Department gives free vaccinations against measles, mumps, polio, diptheria, tetanus and whooping cough to any child under the age of 18.

This immunization clinic is held at the Chester I. Whitten Community Center, 900 S. Melrose Avenue, Placentia from 8 to 11 a.m. and 1 to 4 p.m. The next clinic is scheduled for Thursday, April 15; no appointments are needed.

At the same time as the immunization clinic, a well-baby clinic is conducted for children of low-income families. Appointments for a well-baby check are made by calling the Health Department at 834-5304.

Further information regarding the immunization clinic and the well-baby clinic may be obtained by calling the Placentia Office of Social Services at 993-8178.

CITY COUNCIL

Tax Relief Deadline

Orange County Assessor Bradley L. Jacobs is concerned that certain totally disabled veterans have thus far failed to file for their property tax exemption.

The Assessor points out that any totally disabled veteran whose disability was service-incurred, and who either entered the service as a California resident, or was legally a resident of California on January 1, 1976, is eligible to file a claim allowing reduction of up to $10,000 assessed value on his/her dwelling.

According to Jacobs, at least 100 such veterans have, as yet, failed to file their claims this year. Such veterans must file by April 15th to receive 100 percent of the exemption benefit this tax year.

The Assessor urges all totally disabled veterans who think they might qualify for this benefit to contact the Veterans' Division of his office at 834-2760 for further information.

Jacobs also indicated that many homeowners in the county have not yet filed for the "Homeowners' Exemption" on newly acquired property.

Any homeowner who purchased a new or used dwelling after March 1, 1975 and still occupied that house on March 1, 1976 must apply for a Homeowners' Benefit by April 15th to receive a $1750 assessed value exemption for this tax year.

Those still living in the homes on which the exemption was applied last year need not refile this year. The exemption will automatically be granted.

For further information regarding the Homeowners' Exemption please call 834-3821.

A BICENTENNIAL PROJECT FOR YORBA LINDA

The Nixon Birthplace Foundation

(a California non-profit corporation)

Wants you to help in beautifying and preserving the birthplace of the 37th President.

We need funds to construct an appropriate marker, driveway, parking lot and landscaping at the property now owned by the Yorba Linda School District.

Work will start soon on a marker built with stones native to the 50 states. It will include an appropriate bronze plaque at the entrance to the grounds on Yorba Linda Blvd. It is hoped to have the marker completed by July 4.

By making a contribution, you too, can have a part in this local observance of the Bicentennial.

Plaques will be given to everyone who contributes $50 or more. Please fill in the coupon below and mail to:

Helpers Needed For Clubs

The North Orange County YMCA is seeking volunteer advisors in Brea, La Habra and Placentia for leadership positions in the area of Junior High School Club programming. As a result of a survey taken at the six junior high schools in those areas, the following special interests emerged as very popular among the young students: Backpacking, skiing, long distance cycling; photography; and social clubs.

The YMCA is interested in adults who are genuinely concerned about today's youth and would be willing to share their time and talent with a junior high club in their community. Time involvement would include approximately 1-2 hours a week and a maximum of three weekend days a month.

The term talent may range from hobby or leisure time activity interests to specialized skills one would be willing to share with his or her own group. Another valuable resource are those individuals who are adept or interested in the area of informal counseling, either on a one-to-one or group basis.

For more information please contact 879-YMCA.

Library Showcase

The collectors:

The Children's department showcases are neatly dressed this week with interesting displays.

Bobbi Childers is sharing her collection of various kinds of birds' nests which she has found near her home. David Alvarez is exhibiting his collection of fossil sea life which he has discovered while exploring the Carbon Canyon area. A nostalgic note is added to the displays by an array of old Easter and birthday greeting cards belonging to staffer Sharon Habegger.

Reminder:

The Yorba Linda library is scheduling a seven hour free film marathon as part of its National Library Week activities.

A continuous showing of short films from the library's own collection begins at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, April 8 in the community room. Highlighting the program will be the recent hit musical, "Hello, Dolly" starring Barbara Streisand, set for 7:30 p.m.

Sister Mary To Address Council

St. Joseph Women's Council is inviting the public to hear Sister Mary Frances Hession, Sister of Providence.

Sister plans to have an inspirational topic for "Holy Week." The meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 14, at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

Install R-19 ceiling insulation now. Cut back on the gas you use for heating forever.
Do it yourself—it only takes a day.
Do-it-yourself ceiling insulation gives you double savings. You save on the cost of installation, you save on the amount of gas you use for heating.
Check your attic or crawl space. Even if there's some insulation there, you probably need more to meet current FHA R-19 standards for energy conservation. (R-19 is simply a measure of the insulation material's ability to prevent winter heat loss and summer heat gain. All manufacturers label their insulation materials with R-values.)
You'll find installing R-19 ceiling insulation is surprisingly easy—our free booklet tells you exactly how. It only takes a few hours to complete the job, but your savings go on forever.

HORSE TALES

by JOAN JOHNSON

FLY CONTROL ON THE HORSE RANCH - Part 2: WATER MANAGEMENT:

Accumulations of damp manure, bedding, or damp feed are ideal for fly development. Following are some ideas for effective reduction of these fly sources: use nonleak valves on all troughs, bowls, cups and other water devices; use automatic valves or sanitary drains for large troughs or cups if water flow is continuous; properly grade earth surfaces in paddocks and corrals.

Adapt these to suit a master drainage plan so that rainwater or water-trough overflow does not form ponds; keep feed bins or troughs away from water sources; frequently remove stall bedding from underneath waterers.

RANCH SANITATION -

Good sanitary methods around barns, outdoor stalls, paddocks, arenas, tack sheds, and the residence are as important as manure management. A general cleanup program should supplement the manure management system.

Pay particular attention to the following items; in summer, use as little bedding material in stalls as possible; remove damp or spilled feed from around bins, tanks, and manger bottoms, particularly those not often used.

This material is a food source for flies and decreases the effectiveness of chemical fly baits; bury all garbage, fruit and vegetable wastes, and pet droppings and cover with compacted soil, or store in tight-lid containers until off-property disposal is possible; properly compost grass clippings, leaves, garden prunings, and similar material, or keep in fly-tight bins, thinly spread in the field, or remove once a week for disposal and destruction.

Weed control around stables, corrals, water troughs, and paddocks improves sun penetration and air movement. This helps to dry the manure and reduces resting places for certain fly species.

Controlling weed growth near open waste-water drains reduces the breeding potential of filth flies, gnats, and mosquitoes and makes chemical control easier.

Good air circulation and maximum exposure to sunlight improves sanitation. Use closed structures only to protect tack and equipment and as weather shelters for the horses. Pipe and cable fences are preferable for free air circulation, reduced maintenance, and simpler cleanout.

NEWCOMERS CLUB Easter Egg Hunt is previewed by Greg and Debbie Laporte as they anticipate all the goodies they'll uncover on Saturday, April 10, when the club's event is held at the Fullerton Greenbelt Park. To participate or attend call 993-0770.

Newcomers Plan Easter Festivities

The Placentia-Yorba Linda Newcomers Club will sponsor an Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, April 10, at 2 p.m., at the Fullerton Creek Greenbelt for the children of club members. An afternoon of fun and surprises is planned with a special gift for each child-even "little" ones.

Other April activities include a Macrame class on April the 8th at 8 p.m.

There will also be "ice skating" with the Daytime Gadabouts and a couples' theater dinner party at Sebastian's West.

Further information on all the Newcomers events is available by calling 528-2357.

You are invited . . .

INVITATIONS to an Art Auction were being distributed this week by the El Dorado High School Band Club and Track Club to raise needed funds. The event is scheduled for Saturday, April 10.

Art Auction Scheduled

An Art Show and Auction, to raise funds for the El Dorado High School Band Club and Track Club, will be held at the school's Lecture Hall on Saturday, April 10.

Admission is free to the event which will hold a preview from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. with the auction scheduled for 8:30 p.m.

Refreshments will be served and an original oil painting will be given away as a door prize.

Invitations sent out this week explained that quality art will be offered, consisting of original lithographs, etchings, and graphics signed and numbered by many of the world's most renowned artists.

"There also will be an enriching array of water colors and original oil paintings from all parts of the world. Each work of art is beautifully framed and ready to hang on your wall," the invitation states.

Catalogues will be given free to guests attending.

Cigarette Flavor Decoded.

Scientists isolate tobacco ingredients most essential to taste –'Enriched Flavor'™ packed into new low tar MERIT.

By "cracking" cigarette smoke down into separate ingredients, researchers at Philip Morris have discovered very special "key" flavor units that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar.

The discovery is called 'Enriched Flavor.'

The cigarette packed with 'Enriched Flavor' is MERIT. At 9 mg., one of the lowest tar levels in smoking today.

Yet MERIT actually packs the taste of cigarettes having more tar.

Up to 60% more tar.

If you smoke, you'll be interested.

Tests Verify Taste

Thousands of smokers were tested. The results were conclusive: Against five current leading low tar brands, 9 mg. MERIT was reported by a significant majority of smokers to deliver more taste.*

Repeat: deliver more taste.

In similar tests against 11 mg. to 15 mg. menthol brands, a significant majority of all smokers tested reported MERIT MENTHOL delivered as much—or more—taste.

MERIT and MERIT MENTHOL.

Both packed with 'Enriched Flavor.'

Both lower in tar than 98% of all cigarettes sold today.

Both turning in extraordinary flavor performances against higher tar competition.

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough.

Now smoke the cigarette.

MERIT.

LONG SHOT El Dorado's Carol Groth makes a long shot under pressure in the Hawk's CIF game Friday at Schurr. Watching are Laurie Simmons and Carol Michelle. The girls won the game easily to stay very much in contention in the CIF playoffs. The finals could be within the city of Placentia, as both Valencia and El Dorado have progressed to the quarter finals.

Reward Offered

A reward is being offered for a two-tone grey metal tournament tennis racket, which disappeared from the El Dorado High School gymnasium.

The new racket, bearing the serial number G22241, is the property of Brian Hilderbrand, a writer for the Placentia Courier and was a birthday present from his parents. The racket is valued at $60.

The disappearance is now being investigated by the Placentia Police Department, and Mrs. Hilderbrand is offering a reward for its return. Anyone finding the racket can call Mrs. Hilderbrand at 524-0812 and no questions will be asked, Mrs. Hilderbrand states.

Girl Hawks Tops In CIF Playoffs

Having total control of the game, the El Dorado Golden Hawks took a decisive 63-30 victory over the Schurr Spartans of Montebello, in the second round of the CIF 3A playoffs.

With the game dedicated to the teams' favorite things, Beavers and 'nanas, Junior Nancy Michelle led the scoring with 22 points. Senior Carol Groth was second with 20 and Sophomore Carol Michelle followed with 10.

Other assets of the Hawk's victory consisted of strong passing and rebounding. Top rebounders were Carol Groth and Mindy Ogg. Carol Michelle had a total of eight assists.

"The girls have been working very hard to make their victories a total team effort and so far they've been very successful", says ED coach Linda "Mom" Anderson.

Donaldson Is All American Swimmer

Rob Donaldson of Yorba Linda, a freshman at UCI, attended the NCAA Division II Swim Championships at Springfield College in Springfield, Mass. March 18-20.

Competing in the 500 yard freestyle, Donaldson placed 8th with a time of 4:42.6. He then completed another outstanding swim in the 200 yard freestyle where he placed second in 1:42.6, earning him College All American honors.

The UCI 400 yard freestyle relay finished third and the 800 yard freestyle relay finished second, both with Donaldson competing.

Chico State won the meet while UCI finished fourth.

Donaldson is a 1975 graduate of Esperanza High School where he was captain of both the water polo and swim teams. While there he established school records in every swimming event and an Orange League record in the 500 yard free.

Warrior Netters Successful

By Scott Embldge

Troy High School has one of the most talented tennis teams in Orange County but they are in an unforutnate position, they are in the same league as Sunny Hills.

Sunny Hills is the most probable choice to become the new state champions and are almost annually in the top five.

Troy won every league match it hadlast year except the two matches against Sunny Hills and it appears the samecircumstances will befall the Warriors again this year.

Troy opened its Freeway League season against Sunny Hills and was beaten 26-2. No other Freeway League team has gotten a mere two points from Sunny Hills.

The two victories were singles matches with Troy's two top players, Mike Lillie and Paul Shaver saving a shutout for Troy.

The Warriors have gone on to win six straight matches with only one challenge. The close match was 21.5 to 6.5 against Santa Ana Valley with four of Valley's points accumulated by their number one singles player and the number two player in Southern California, Jeff Jones.

The match was typical of most contests this year with the exception of Mike Lillie vacating his singles spot when Coach Norm Davis chose to have him play doubles.

So, with Paul Shaver playing top singles, Troy expected and got three points from him. Shaver's first match was against Jones and Paul played a tremendous, hard-working match even though he lost 3-6. Shaver then swept his remaining matches 6-0,6-0, 6-0.

Mark Beilin, one of five returning varsity players, competed in the number two slot and after losing to Jones 1-6, he took three quick sets 6-0, 6-2, 6-1.

Jose and Luis Paulido played number three and four singles respectively and came through with excellent play. Both brothers lost to Jones, Jose 1-6, Luis 0-6, but then returned and won their remaining matches by a combined game score of 36-7.

The top doubles team of Lillie and Kraig Kobayashi had little trouble in disposing of their opposition.

They swept four straight set 6-3, 6-1, 6-0, 6-2, but the number two doubles team of Rich Homan and Jim Peterson split one match.

In the first match they played Homan and Peterson their Falcon adversaries 6-1, 1-6 but then came back to win their second match 6-0, 6-0.

It appears Troy will finish 12-2 this year but with a young team the future is going to be something to look forward to. Lillie and Luis Pulido are both sophomores and Shaver, Beilin, Jose Pulido and Peterson are all juniors.

In addition, a fine Junior Varsity team, spearheaded by junior Terry Brevick, has compiled a 6-1 record in league play and is always ready with reserves. Who knows, maybe Sunny Hills won't always be number one.

Tigers In Loss Column

By John Barreto

The Valencia Tigers seem destined for oblivion. Last week the Tigers lost two more games to remain in the cellar.

Tuesday, Carl Hill lost his fourth game in as many starts. Valencia was leading 1-0 going into the El Dorado fourth when Jim Hayck singled home the tying and go ahead runs to put El Dorado in front. However, the Hawks scored four more time enroute to a 6-1 win over the luckless Tigers.

Again, Valencia fielders committed a bundle of errors - 4.

The run down: El Dorado - 6 runs, 9 hits and one error. Valencia: 1 run, 4 hits and 4 errors. Pete Hazen was the winning pitcher for El Dorado.

Friday, the Tigers continued their losing ways as they bowed to Canyon 7-5. As always, errors led to the defeat for Valencia. It was tied up 5-5 with the Comanches up for their last time.

Pitcher Mike McCall walked the first batter, then an error and a fielder's choice set the stage for Erik Nelson as he singled in the winning run. The good note for Valencia was a long double that was hammered down the left field line by Frank Martinez that was good for one run. In the third, Bill Moneymaker was the winning pitcher for Canyon.

The rundown: Canyon, 7 runs, 7 hits and 4 errors. Valencia: 5 runs, 6 hits and 5 errors.

DIAMOND DUST: There is hope for the Tigers yet. They have a chance to move up into the standings this week if they win one or both of their games and Brea-Olinda loses at least one game.

As of this writing, Valencia has a 1-6 record and Brea-Olinda has an almost identical 1-5. So it would be easy to move into fifth place and if all the errors would end, perhaps the Tigers can take Canyon. The Tigers are not a defensive team. They have made 30 errors in 7 games. Not too good, if they are to move up, then they must play better defensively.

League leading Sonora High School still remains undefeated with a 7-0 win-loss record. The Tigers play at Esperanza this Friday at 3:15 p.m.

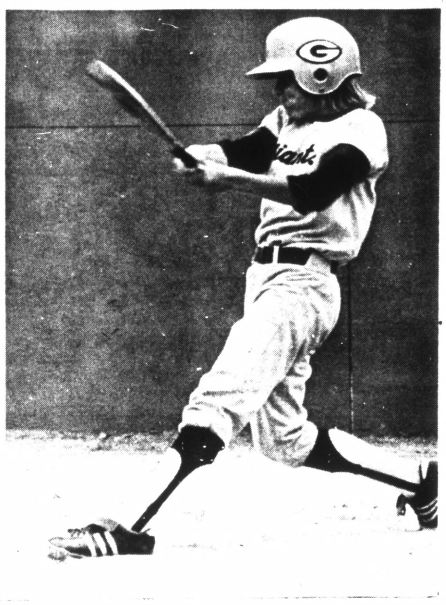
Registration

Registration for the Valencia Youth Athletic Association football program, will be held April 10 and 24, the group announced this week.

Enrollment is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on both days at Valencia High School, the Whitten Community Center and the Gomez Community Center, Alex Segovia, a member of the board reports.

Ages accepted are from 9 up to the 14th birthday.



MAKING CONTACT - Craig Jennings of the Major Giants in the Yorba Linda Little League puts everything into a cut at the ball to register a hit and a run batted in team's Opening Day game.

DAVID SCHAAL

Schall Wins Race

David Schaal, running in the 20 to 35 age group, finished first in his division at the 2 Mile Fun Run held the second Saturday of each month at Carbon Canyon Park in Brea.

Schaal's time was 15:49.

The event is sponsored by the El Dorado High School Booster Club and starts at 9 a.m.

Entry fee is $1.50 donation and the races are run in divisions starting 13 and under; 14 to 19; 20 to 35; 36 to 49; 50 and over; girls-women and handicap, the group reports.

Women's Clubs Convention

"Let Freedom Ring" is the theme at the 20th annual Orange District, California Federation of Women's Clubs (C.F.W.C.) convention, set for Thursday, April 8, and Friday, April 9, at the Disneyland Hotel, Anaheim.

Mrs. Clemens Fromlath, Rossmoor Woman's Club, district president, will preside over all sessions, to be attended by members and guests of the 5,859-member group's 35 unit clubs. Yorba Linda Women's Club will be represented by Mrs. Leo Brough and Mrs. Gerald Stack.

The 12:30 p.m. Thursday opening session, "Yankee Doodle Dandy," will include a band concert by the Villa Park High School band.

The mayor of Anaheim will extend the city's greetings, with Mrs. Howard Hoestery, Tustin Area Woman's Club, convention chairman, giving the response.

Special guest speaker this session will be Mrs. John James Barbour, La Mesa, C.F.W.C. president, speaking on, "Volunteers - Yesterday - Today - Tomorrow."

Presentation of club presidents will open the 6:30 p.m., "America - Orange District on Parade," awards banquet in the hotel's Grand Ballroom.

Climaxing the evening will be presentation of annual awards to clubs for outstanding accomplishments in the many philanthropic, educational and civic areas of interest of Federation.

Concluding session, "Horizons '76," a luncheon, begins at 12 noon Friday, and will honor past presidents of the Orange County and Orange District, C.F.W.C. Scholarships will be presented in the fields of art, conservation, drama, indian affairs, music and spiritual values, and special recognition will be accorded winners of the district's creative sewing contest. Announcement of the coveted Orange District, "Woman of the Year," award also will be made.

Final business on the convention agenda is installation of new district officers for the 1976-78 administration. Mrs. Vernon Cunningham, Rossmoor Woman's Club, past president of C.F.W.C., will conduct the ceremonies.

STUDENT MOTHER FASHION SHOW--Marlene Enriquez and Margie Angulano admire Veronica Angel's modeling as they all prepare for a fashion show luncheon sponsored by the Student Mothers Program of the Placentia Unified School District.

Student Mothers Entertain

Clothes for the young and very young will be featured at the fashion show and luncheon sponsored by the student mother program of the Placentia Unified School District at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, April 8, at Evangelical Free Church of Yorba Linda, 5328 Richfield Rd., Yorba Linda.

Models in the show, which is titled "Young Spirit of Spring," will include students in the program, their children and husbands. Kelly Christiansen will narrate, and Donna Bylund, district secretary to the associate superintendent, will provide piano music.

A luncheon of salads, casseroles and desserts will be prepared and served buffet-style by student mothers and home economics students at El Camino Real High School.

Fashions will be furnished by Kazoo in Placentia and Motherhood Maternity in the Orange Mall.

Student mother teachers are Diann Ephrom and Sandy Valdez. El Camino home economics teacher is Karen Davis.

Tickets are available for a $2 donation and may be reserved by calling 524-4239 or 524-8350. Proceeds will be used to provide nursery and playground equipment for young children who attend school with their mothers in the student mother program.

Easter Services At Methodist

Special Maundy Thursday services at Valencia United Methodist Church in Placentia will feature a dramatization entitled "The Upper Room". Communion will be served during this presentation of the origin of the Lord's Supper at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Participating in the drama, written by Raleigh Hill, will be Donn Blosser, Vyron Klassen, Ron Hargreaves, Roger Nelson, Tom Schofield, Charles Neuman, Bob Cooper, Howard Harry, David Meyer and Sanford Sweet.

Two worship services are scheduled for Easter Sunday. Church school will be held during the first service at 9 a.m. and child care will be provided only during the second service at 10:30 a.m.

The Rev. Sanford Sweet will deliver the message, "The Easter Victory", at both services.

WEDDING

Don and Dolores Lauderdale announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan, to Ian Vaux. They have set a June 26 wedding date at Placentia Presbyterian Church...Placentia Presbyterian News.

KEEPING IN TIME FOR CANCER---Luci Grismer of Placentia, and Tom Kennedy of the television game show "Name That Tune," practice their lines for the 1976 residential crusade for the Orange County Unit of the American Cancer Society. Kennedy is honorary chairman of the crusade. Mrs. Grismer, crusade chairman for Placentia, will coordinate the circulation of neighbor-to-neighbor kits within her community. She is interested in helping the cancer society raise funds because cancer has touched all the female members of her family. "I think it is vital to raise funds to conquer this disease," she said, "also, when I had my cancer surgery, a volunteer from the society visited me every day and helped me through a very trying time." The kits Mrs. Grismer will circulate will raise funds for the society's threefold program of research, education and service.

Fashions At Paine PTA

Springtime was the theme at the Mabel Paine P.T.A. Mother-Daughter Fashion Show, March 30th, at the Yorba Linda Library. Ms. Florence Smales, well known Orange County fashion commentator, narrated as the following girls modeled their "Mother-made" fashions:

Shanda Sterling, Kimberly Corrigan, Wendy Framley, Heather Sterling, Jane Elliott, Jennifer Elliott, Tammy Tucker, Carolyn Johnson, Jennifer Ross, Lisa Ross, Becky Perry, Kirsten Knutson, Erika Knutson, Theresa Mesa, Deena Mesa, Shauna McDonough, Eileen McDonough, Alexia Sharpe, Marcie Coffman, Sheri Dyer, and Christina McDonald.

Bunnies and flowers dominated the refreshment table where Hospitality Chairpersons Pat Bishop and Lyn McGrath served. Door prizes by local merchants were presented by Nancy Rutz and Dawn Dyer. Chairperson of the event was Charlotte Coffman.

GRADUATES

Navy Fireman Apprentice Gene M. Szufnarowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Szufnarowski of 1701 McCormack Lane, Placentia, has been graduated from recruit training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

SOCIAL EVENT- Miss Terry Harman will be married to Joseph Morris, Jr. in a 4:30 p.m. ceremony, Saturday, April 10 at the Placentia Presbyterian Church. A large reception at the Alta Vista Country Club will follow the formal ceremonies. A number of out of town guests will be attending. Miss Harman is a former Miss Placentia and has been accorded a number of honors in beauty pageants in the state.

Dinner To Benefit Boys Club

A home cooked Spanish enchilada dinner, a benefit for Placentia Boys Club members, will be held between 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. at the Boys Club facility 132 East Crowther, on Saturday, April 10.

Proceeds from the event will be used to provide funds for Boys Club youngsters to attend camp, Tony and Irene Lopez, in charge of the dinner report.

Tickets are $2.50 and can be purchased at the door or from the Lopezes at 528-2644.

On the menu will be enchiladas, rice, salad and punch or coffee.

PREVIEW--Bernice Galvin, Charlotte Fiese and Betty Dobrick, left to right, display some of the centerpieces and flair which will highlight the fourth annual fashion show of St. Martin's Women's Guild on April 10.

Mon Amis Feted At Lunch

"A Touch of Venus" was the theme for the Mon Ami Auxiliary of Children's Home Society luncheon honoring Angel, Patroness, and Associate members recently at the home of Thelma Kozlowski, membership chairman.

Pauline Arietta, president, welcomed Guest Speaker Judy Davison, Orange County Coordinator of Auxiliaries for Children's Home Society.

Fashions from the La Greca Shop, Villa del Sol, were informally modeled by Christina Jensen, Sandy Gray, Jackie Dekoning and Kathy Tucker. Guests were served a Grecian menu of Melitzanolsalata (Eggplant salad), Greek Zucchini Omelet, Patatosalata (Greek potato salad), Dolmadakia (Stuffed grape leaves) and Karethopita (Walnut cake).

Active and provisional members have been busy during recent weeks making boutique items for the event.

Angel, Patroness and Associate members are very important to Children's Home Society. With their support Children's Home Society can offer a wide range of programs to meet the needs of Orange County families. Among services offered are intensive counseling for married and unmarried women with problem pregnancies as well as short term care for infants and children.

ENGAGED

Clarabel Scott is announcing the engagement of her daughter, Belinda, to Phil Mitchell. Both are students at Cal Poly Pomona where they will be seniors this fall. They plan a September 4 wedding at Placentia Presbyterian Church...Placentia Presbyterian News.

Redeemer To Celebrate

The Redeemer Lutheran Church will be holding special services in honor of the country's Bicentennial celebration, the church announced this week.

On Sunday, May 23, the church's worship service will feature a Bicentennial theme in music and narration.

On Sunday, July 4, plans are for an old fashioned celebration, including an ice cream social, a barbecue, folk games and band concert.

Free Swim At YMCA

North Orange County YMCA invites children to get in the swim during their Easter vacation "Learn to Swim" campaign.

A series of four lessons is being offered to beginners four years and up. No advanced classes will be offered at this time. There will be no charge for the lessons.

The Learn to Swim classes will meet during the early afternoon on April 12, 13, 14 and 15. There will be free recreational swimming from 3:30 p.m. until 5 daily during the same week.

Registration is required since space is limited. For further information call the Y at 879-YMCA.

Wed On July 17

The engagement of Miss Debra Lee Shaver to Richard Garcia has been announced by Miss Shaver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Shaver of Yorba Linda. The bridegroom-elect's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Milan Garcia, also of Yorba Linda.

The future bride is employed at Disneyland Park and at Myra's School of Dance in Yorba Linda. Richard is employed at Alpha Beta in La Habra.

The United Methodist Church of Yorba Linda will be the setting of the couple's wedding ceremony on July 17.

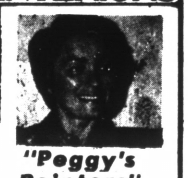
RAYDRA INTERIORS



"Peggy's Pointers"

When you approach the task of decorating your own home, it is important to ask yourself what you and your family like, and what kind of lifestyle you plan to lead.

We Californians tend to be more informal than our Eastern cousins, and tend to go in for a more relaxed type of decorating as a general rule. However, if your desire is for a formal atmosphere, by all means do it! We decorators must bear in mind at all time when we help you, that we are helping you put together your home. It is our responsibility to see to it that we put it together so that it reflects your taste, and goes together in a way that the overall appearance is harmonious. Beware the decorator who tries to make your home look like his/her trademark. If someone saw my work, and was able to walk in and say this is a Peggy home, I'd be ready to start over! It should be your home, and it should capture oohs and aahs, but it should also look like you!

Friends Have Home Potluck

"Getting to know you". That's the purpose of the adult home potlucks sponsored by Rose Drive Friends Church. On April 9 and 10, Friday and Saturday, friends and members of the church will enjoy an evening of food and friendship in various homes.

An opportunity to sign up either as host/hostess or guest is given on Sunday, or by calling the church office, 528-6496. Then guests are matched with hosts.

Over the past few years the friends at Rose Drive Friends Church have found the method both enjoyable and effective.

Presbyterians Plan Easter

The Placentia Presbyterian Church will have three special services during the Easter season.

On Palm Sunday, April 11, the Carol and Chalice Choirs will sing "Hosanna" during the 9 a.m. worship service. At the 10:30 a.m. service, the Chancel Choir will sing "Ride On" and "The Palms."

On Maundy Thursday, April 15, the Sacrament of Communion will be observed at 7:30 p.m.

On Easter Sunday, services will follow the Sunrise Easter Service in Kraemer Park. The two Easter services at the church will be held at 9 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Reverend Bob Prentice will deliver the sermon.

Lutherans List Easter Services

Easter season services at the Redeemer Lutheran Church in Placentia, will include Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday on April 15 at 7:30 p.m., the church advises.

Good Friday's 7:30 p.m. Service of Darkness, will feature the senior choir.

On Easter, April 18, Holy Communion will be given at 7 a.m. Festival Worship will be held at 8:30 and 10:30 a.m.

Methodist Activities

A confirmation class has begun at United Methodist Church for junior high and ninth and tenth grade age youngsters. It is being held over a period of 10 weeks on Thursday evenings from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

At the Friday, April 9 meeting of the 39er Fellowship the "Story of America", a beautiful film of America's birth will be shown in the Fellowship Hall at 8 p.m.

Saturday, April 17 at 10 a.m. the Easter Bunny will visit the church for the annual egg hunt for children two to five years of age. Donation is 50 cents. Register in the church school office. Call Pat Hansen at 993-9110 for further information.

Love And Acceptance By A People Called Friends

Everyone needs a 'place'.
Our families, our work,
our school, our recreation should provide places for us to feel loved and accepted.
Sometimes they don't,
There is a place that does.
You can feel at home and identify with others in worship, in Bible Study groups, in various classes that deal with the everyday problems of life, in service for others.
Find your place with us.

Baptists Begin Services In Spanish

The Church in the Marketplace is pleased to announce the beginning of worship services and Bible teaching in the Spanish language under the direction of Rev. David R. Pistone.

Worship service is held in the Marketplace chapel Sunday afternoons at 4 p.m. Bible Study is conducted every Thursday night at 7 p.m. with English Bible classes for the children.

All Spanish speaking people are invited to participate in this ministry of worship and study.

Rev. Witbro Workshop Leader

The Rev. Jerry L. Witbro, pastor of the Moravian Community Church will lead a special series of four programs on "learning to live through more effective communication using the principles of Transactional Analysis".

Two films will be presented at each session beginning Saturday, 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m., April 24th through Saturday, May 15. The series will be presented at the Family Enrichment Center, 1664 Broadway, Anaheim where Mr. Witbro serves as pastoral counselor on the staff of the center.

The four sessions will cover: 1) Ego States & Transactions; 2) Strokes and Time Structures; 3) Feelings and Games we Play; 4) Acquiring Life Scripts and Changing our Scripts.

Cost is $25 per person for the Series of four or $8 per session per person.

CROWNS ARE FOR KINGS!
Or queens,
champion athletes,
or beauty winners.
They are symbols,
garlands,
or rewards
of transitory value.
Jesus wore a crown
of thorns!
He suffered,
died,
and rose again
to win for us a crown
of glory!
A crown
imperishable
and everlasting.
He said,
"Be faithful unto death,
and I will give you the crown of life!"

FREE ADMISSION

An uplifting, positive thinking inspirational home is now freeway close to you and your family!
With the recent completion of the Orange Freeway, (57), an exciting, heart-stirring experience is now only a 15-minute drive from Diamond Bar, and even closer if you live in La Habra, Yorba Linda, Fullerton, Placentia, or neighboring areas. We invite you to experience the positive spirit of the unique uplifting ministry of Garden Grove Community Church. You've seen this exciting church with Robert Schuller, Sunday on television (Channel 5, KTLA, at 10:00 a.m.). 5 Services are offered every Sunday; 7:30, 8:15, 9:30, 11:15 am and 6 pm.
The cross-topped 15 floor tower is filled with people helping people. Here's the home of America's first 24-hour live telephone counseling service (Dial NEW-HOPE), and a Christian Counseling Center! There's more, for you!!
Our tower is clearly visible from the Orange, Santa Ana, and Garden Grove Freeways, and is near their junction.
Take Chapman Ave. off, and go West to Lewis St.

El Dorado In Festival

Roy Burns, of Monterey Jazz Festival-fame, is on his way to Fullerton College.

The Festival's house drummer for the past few years, as well as a respected recording artist, he'll be in the guest artist spotlight during the fourth annual Fullerton College Jazz Festival at 8 p.m. April 30 (Friday) in the Campus Theater.

Instructor-host Terry Blackley said 11 area high school jazz groups, including El Dorado High School (Richard Watson) will participate in clinics and perform during the morning-afternoon adjudication sessions. The top three groups will return in the evening to share the performance spotlight.

Slogan Contest

Deadline for entries in Americanism Educational League's 6th annual Patriotic Slogan Contest is 5 p.m., Wednesday, April 14, according to William J. Haney of Brea, contest chairman and a League Trustee.

The contest is open to all Orange County seniors at public and private high schools. Entry forms have been sent to school scholarship counselors, public libraries and local Chambers of Commerce. Bicentennial-related slogans are being featured this year.

Forty cash awards, totalling $1776, will be presented on May 17 at Independence Hall, Knott's Berry Farm, Buena Park, Haney said.

Ramona Play April 24,25

The 49th season of the famous Ramona Outdoor play staged in Hemet, will open on April 24 and 25.

The play, complete with cowboys and Indians, which is presented by the people of Hemet and San Jacinto, will also be performed on May 1, 2, 8 and 9. Show time is 2:30 p.m.

Tickets are available now for the outdoor production by writing P.O. Box 755, Hemet, California 92343 or by telephone (714) 658-3111.

Teachers To Show And Tell

As more than 10,000 teachers from throughout the nation, meet in Chicago today (April 7), with them will be Sandie Everson and Donna Wallis on leave from their desks in the Placentia Unified School District.

What has prompted the two attractive teachers to join the National Council of Exceptional Children Convention is a brain child of their own. Their presentation is one of 70 selected to be shown to the convention from 1,200 applications.

With the teachers will be their entry, something they call Box Fore Kids. Mrs. Wallis explains that their idea started as an answer to the problem specialists face, when they are confined to limited areas with no storage space.

"The Box Fore Kids contains everything needed by a resource teacher going into any classroom for the entire day. Mini-learning centers can be pulled out of the box and used on the spot. Every item has interchangeable parts.

"Areas included within the box can be used for extra minutes in class: games, material for assessment of student needs, interpersonal related material and many other items"

The two teachers will be presenting a workshop at the convention, using their special materials.

Hawks Win Own Track Meet

By Brian Hilderbrand

Despite the loss of their top pole vaulter and best mile runner, El Dorado went on to win their own Fourth Annual El Dorado Invitational track meet.

Jeff Gilbert and Richard Dutzi were sidelined for the eight hour event, but the Hawks got several top three finishes in the championship finals to enable them to claim both the meet and sweepstakes awards.

Chuck Lybeck finished second in the 880, Jim Hunt placed third in the 330 low hurdles, Mario Herbst came in third in the pole vault, a first place finish for Jeff Lawson in the high jump, and a first place in the discus by Kevin Corbett earned the Hawks 54 team points. The second place teams, Gahr and Cantwell, finished with 32 points.

There were several records established for the meet. Lance Jebbia broke the 10.0 record in the 100 yard event with a 9.9 mark. Gahr's Don Thompson shattered the 440 record by dashing the distance in 48.4. The old record stood at 49.6. Michael Dicontin of La Canada destroyed the record of 1:56.4 in the 880 with a new mark of 1:55.7. Chip Benson from L.A. Lutheran took 1.8 seconds off the 330 low hurdles record, establishing 38.0 as the new mark. Brea's Paul Johnson broke a record in the shot put, besting the mark by 2-1¾ feet. Johnson's toss of 58-8¾ put him into the books.

Several records were also set in the frosh/soph competition. Artesia finished first in that category, with El Dorado winding up in fifth place.

Over 45 schools took part in the meet, with a total of 2335 entries. There were over 120 races held, plus the field events. Meet coordinator, Glen Hastings, was very pleased with the way the track meet was handled, he stated.

Hawk Netmen

By Brian Hilderbrand

El Dorado's tennis team, led to victory by the doubles team of Chris Buck and Brett Bittel and singles player Tim Kilker, improved its league record to 7-0 by beating the Sonora Raiders, 21-7.

Kilker, by sweeping against the Raiders, improved his unblemished record of sets won to 56-0. Kilker beat Chris Cain, Phil Filippi, Robert Garvin, and Doug Hemsley by scores of 6-1, 6-1, 6-0, and 6-0.

The Buck-Bittel duo also swept the competition, improving their season record to 37-3. Sonora's doubles teams, DeKlotz-Skala, and McDowell-Knadler were turned away by Buck and Bittel by scores of 6-3, 6-0, and 6-1, 6-4. While Kilker is considered the top singles player in the league. Chris and Brett are tops in doubles.

Blake Von Sprecken, number two singles player, grunted his way to three victories against one defeat, to the number one Sonora player. Von Sprecken beat the two, three, and four men by scores of 6-0, 7-5, and 6-0.

Steve McAllen, third singles for ED, went two for two against Sonora. McAllen lost to the top two players, 3-6, 4-6, but dumped the other two 6-4, 6-4.

Rob Gourley, a sophomore, was elevated from the JV squad to fill the spot vacated by Jon Yee. Gourley faced the tough Raiders aggressively, and just may have earned a niche on the varsity team. Rob beat the two, three, and four players by identical scores of 6-4. His only loss was to Cain, the number one player, 3-6.

The Hawks other doubles team was severed, as Paul Howes was not able to attend the match. Tracy Pierson, who normally plays with Howes, doubled up with Ken Dressel as the number two doubles team. Peirson and Dressel broke even, winning two and losing two. The combo lost to the DeKlotz-Skala duo by scores of 5-7, 3-6, but came back and beat the McDowell-Knadler team 6-2, 6-4.

El Dorado's record now stands at 12-2 on the season, 7-0 in league, as ED rests in first place. The Hawks are on a 10 match winning streak.

We Get Letters—

Diedrich Questioned On Chapman

Dear Editor:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter that we have mailed to Supervisor Ralph Diedrich. Perhaps you and your readers will find it of interest.

Helen M. Laborde
Peter Laborde

Dear Supervisor Diedrich,

This letter is to acknowledge receipt of highway funding documents and at the same time question the method of delivery of said documents.

As you may recall from my letter of Feb. 9, 1976, I requested information from your office concerning Arterial Highway Funding Projects for Chapman Avenue in the City of Placentia from Placentia Ave. to Orangethorpe Avenue since the year 1962.

I wrote to you in confidence. My letter to you was a result of dissatisfaction and frustration with the City of Placentia. On March 12, I received documents from your office, hand carried to me by a Placentia City Councilman. These documents were delivered without an envelope or cover letter, merely in loose form. I did not expect city intervention in any manner. Is this method of delivery a normal procedure?

The following are reasons of my dissatisfaction and frustration with the City of Placentia:

Since January 1972, the City of Placentia has claimed, in reference to the widening of Chapman Avenue, that there has never been a Master Plan, alignment, or any kind of a plan for the widening of Chapman Ave. This claim is made even though those of us developing our properties along this arterial highway were asked by the City of Placentia to dedicate frontage and to put in the improvements for the widening as per Master Plan of Streets and Highways of the City of Placentia.

The Master Plan of Streets and Highways, which is also known as Ordinance #247, and Ordinance #246, which was adopted for the purpose of Protecting and Improving the Master Plan of Streets and Highways, were both adopted on Nov. 29, 1961. Councilman L. Jack Gomez, presently a county employee, has continued to support the city's denial of a street alignment, even though he was Placentia Planning Commissioner in 1961 when both the Planning Commission and City Council adopted the Master Plan of Streets and Highways.

For over a three year period I had asked City Hall for this particular map, and was told that they didn't have one. A memo, dated April 9, 1975, addressed to City Administrator Edwin Powell, and signed by City Engineer Ben Minnamide and Planning Director Thomas Nelson, stated that they couldn't find the Master Plan of Streets and Highways in the City Clerk's records. Yet, on April 13, 1975 I approached a City official and informed him that the absence of the map from the City Clerk's file might be in violation of the law. Two days later, April 15, the map was located and shown to me.

Another map in question is the Chapman Avenue Master Plan. The fact is, other citizens and myself have seen the Chapman Avenue Master Plan. It was last seen at City Hall in January of 1971, when it was shown to Rev. B. E. Gebhart of Church of The Nazarene. However, this map has disappeared and the City denies that it ever existed. The denial of an alignment or Master Plan for Chapman Avenue has prompted the City Council to curve Chapman Avenue right through the middle of my commercial building and will be putting others and myself out of business.

Mr. Diedrich, once again, as in my previous letter, I am requesting from your office the following with certification on all documents:

Re: Arterial Highway Fundings to the City of Placentia for Chapman Avenue from Placentia Avenue to Orangethorpe Avenue since the year 1962.

1. The amount of each funding.
2. The project area and specific project.
3. How much money was allocated for right-of-way acquisition and how much money was allocated for construction of each project.
4. The dates these fundings took place.
5. Does the County have maps showing the different project areas being funded and if so are they available for viewing.

I am asking that you please mail them to me or I personally will pick them up when they are ready.

I feel that there are many irregularities in this project and that an investigation by county and state agencies will show an abuse of public funds and property rights.

Sincerely,
Peter Laborde

Finnell States Opinion

Mrs. Betty Mead, Editor
Placentia Courier

Dear Betty:

I have read with interest Councilman Callahan's letter which appeared in the March 31 issue of the Placentia Courier. While certainly not attempting to excuse the poor judgement apparently exercised by the named city employee, I feel the gentleman may only have been reacting to statements allegedly made by Councilman Callahan to the effect that when he gets re-elected to the Council, he intends to work for the firing of the City Administrator, Mr. Powell.

It is interesting to note that Callahan is quick to point out that if city employees are not doing their jobs, "the City Administrator is responsible to the City Council which may censure or discharge him." People should ask themselves why the statement is put in a negative vein. Apparently Councilman Callahan thought all city employees were doing good work when he voted salary increases for all of them. Yet, when it came time for the City Administrator to receive a raise, Mr. Callahan voted against it. Apparently the logic that he uses is if anybody does anything wrong, the City Administrator is to blame, but if everyone performs well, no reward should be given to the City Administrator.

Mr. Callahan further stated in his letter that he is "concerned with how each member of the city family carries out his duties" and "that the highest level of proficiency is met at all levels of the City operation." These are certainly high sounding words. However, the Councilman has had an opportunity to demonstrate this interest and has failed miserably. He is, for instance, Chairman of the Council-Staff Subcommittee charged with establishing a comprehensive evaluation plan for executives and management staff employees. This Subcommittee has only met once in the last five months.

The citizens of the city of Placentia will not be mislead by glib words two weeks before an election. I feel they will look at the incumbent Councilman's personal record during his four years in office. My analysis of that record results in the conclusion that Councilman Callahan should not be re-elected.

Very truly yours,
R.F. Finnell
Former Placentia Mayor

Callahan Answers

To the Citizens of Placentia:

I have read a letter written by a former city councilman, and close personal friend of Ed Powell our present City Administrator. I would like to correct some of the errors of ommission and commission. I have never questioned each individual employee's right to be evaluated and receive just reward for a job well done. For the record, the hourly and office employees fall under one group which negotiates their own contract through the city staff, and is approved by the City Council. The middle-management group reports directly to the City Administrator, whose job it is to evaluate each one and pass on his recommendations to the City Council. It is not my job, nor any other councilman's to evaluate each employee and make direct decison that will affect whether or not he or she gets a raise. That's what we hire the City Administrator and the Department Heads to do in conformance with our charter.

It is not a secret that I am personally displeased with how our City Administrator has been doing his appointed job. I have shown this in public by my vote not to give him a raise in salary that would allow him to earn just about as much as our U.S. Congressman in Washington, D.C. For the sake of Mr. Powell and for the citizens of Placentia, I choose not to air my evaluation of his performance in public. This is a matter for the executive session.

Regarding the matter of the Council-Staff sub-committee to establish a comprehensive evaluation plan for executives and the frequency with which the committee meets. There were three scheduled meetings, all of which I attended, but two of which the other councilmen could not attend due to business commitments. I thank Mr. Finnell for his astute evaluation of my performance. I don't happen to agree with him but that isn't the first time we have been on opposite sides.

Respectfully,
Michael J. Callahan
Present Placentia City Councilman

Editor
Placentia, California

Dear Editor:

There is a slate of 10 candidates for City Council who have offered their irreplaceable time, their God-given abilities and their excellent brain power, and they have offered these things to us free of charge.

Everyone of these candidates have in the last 7 or 8 weeks taken an active part in our small city. They have attended City Council meetings, spent hours with newspaper reporters for interviews. In addition, two or three candidates have walked the streets talking to voters and making their position clear; at the same time gaining a good insight into what the people want from their elected representatives.

Every candidate deserves our gratitude and respect. It's self evident that our beautiful little city can only gain from the input of these people who surely must be counted as our finest citizens. We especially admire those candidates who have gone that extra mile by ringing doorbells and talking to the citizens of Placentia.

Not all of us are in a position to financially support the candidates of our choice, but all of us can honor those candidates and show our respect by getting out and voting April 13.

To do less than that would be an insult to the candidates who are doing what you and I would not do; they are laying their talents on the line for us. I hope we will all remember that on April 13.

Sincerely,
Jack and Bonnie Scarpa

Hawks CIF Swim

El Dorado's swimmers propelled themselves to a second place in the CIF 3-A finals held at East Los Angeles College, coming in only back of San Marino.

Behind El Dorado were Sonora in 10th place and Esperanza in 14th.

The Golden Hawks Roy Cedarstrom and two sophomores, Jay Bickford and Tom Ryan distinguished themselves with Cedarstrom placing third in the 500 freestyle in 3:41.5 and fourth in the 200 freestyle in 1:44.3.

Bickford placed third in the 50 freestyle with 21.6 and fourth in the 100 freestyle win in 48.7. Ryan was fourth in the 100 breaststroke with a 1:02 timing.

The Hawks were second in the free relay with 3:19.3 and fourth in the medley relay with 1:42.4.

The first team included Devin Claffey, Eric Andrews, Cedarstrom, Bickford and on the medley relay, Andrews, Ryan, Jeri Richards and Steve Burchfield.
